SATURDAY.....JUNE 9, 1882.

A MIRACLE.

The Alta Miners Found Alive.

The Alta affair continues to be the engrossing topic of conversation. The latest news is to the effect that the seven miners who were first entombed are alive, and the chances are that they were rescued last night. But this glorious piece of news is saddened by the statement that Dennis Callahan and William Bennett yesterday lost their lives in an endeavor to rescue the others. They entered the drift and were suffocated by the foul air.

The successful attempt to find the seven was made by "Yank" Williams, who, with his head covered with a respirator, entered the drift, found the men, and shook hands with them. He left the men some of the ice he had packed around his head. Of course the men were greatly exhausted. Nothing could then be done to bring them out, because of repairs to the "blower." The "blower" was expected to be in condition to clear the drift of the foul air by eight or nine o'clock, at which time it was firmly believed the men would be brought to the surface.

At 11 o'clock last night we received word that they had found the bodies of the two men who went into the drift yesterday morning and had got the seven imprisoned miners out, but could not take them to the surface for a few hours, being afraid the fresh air would kill them. They were being taken up the shaft gradually, and would probably be out in two or three hours.

ANOTHER EXCURSION.

Yesterday morning the Raymond excursion-party of 100 Eastern people who came over the Southern Pacific Railroad arrived here from Truckee having crossed the Sierra by daylight, being thereby afforded an opportunity of viewing the splendid scenery of that chain of mountains.

The Carson Appeal advances an Otto Greenhood theory to account for the Polk's mystery. The paper affirms to believe that the two old people were practicing the trance and spiritualistic business on the night of the fire and while in a weak condition from over excitement they tipped over the lamp and were unable to save themselves from being burnt.

Among the many desirable results of pure blood are, an elastic step, buoyant spirits, and clear complexions. The possessor of healthy blood has his faculties at command, and enjoys a clear & quick perception which is impossible when the blood is heavy and sluggish with impurities. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best blood purifier and vitalizer known.

The Hon. Charles H. Litchman, the distinguished Greenback orator from Massachusetts, did not arrive Thursday; consequently there was no speaking as advertised. The cause of the delay is unknown.

The best kept, most attractive and most genteel saloon in the State is that of Chase & Thyes, on Virginia street, Reno. Any drink you call for will be supplied in the very best style.

Judge King will hold court in Genoa next Wednesday. The business of that day will be the pleading of Raycroft and arguments in the case of Boyd vs. Anderson.

Hon. George Cassidy writes to a friend in Carson that he will have the appropriation for the U. S. building in Carson before the session of Congress closes.

The shooting gallery in Knust's old store is attracting our amateur as well as expert sportsmen. The gipsy game also furnishes considerable amusement.

Mr. James Sutton, of the Aldine, New York, was in town last evening. He leaves for home this morning, having enjoyed his trip to the Coast.

Lient. Gov. Adam came down from Carson last evening. He will leave for Wyoming this morning to attend to some business interests.

Special inducements for all of Reno's young men to attend the Reno Orchestra dance to-night, at Kimball's Hall, Only 50 cents.

S. F. Hoole, Esq., arrived in town day before yesterday from the northern country. He proposes to stay in Reno for a time.

The Congregational Sunday School picnic to-day at Poor's ranch promises to be largely attended. Everybody is invited.

J. M. Dorman, of the Candelaria True Fissure, was a passenger yesterday morning homeward bound from tide-water.

Mr. Dwelly hopes to have his new mill in Silver Glance district running about the 15th instant.

Important Express Changes.

For over a year past the Adams Express Company and Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express have both occupied the A. T. & S. F. and branches, and the A. & P. R. R. This condition of affairs will now cease, as the companies named have arrived at an amicable and satisfactory arrangement, whereby Wells, Fargo & Co. will hereafter transact the express business of the lines named exclusively, the Adams Express Company withdrawing in their favor. These routes include over 2,000 miles of railroad. In addition, Wells, Fargo & Co. will, on July 1st, assume control of the express business of the Chicago, B. & Q. and B. M. line west of the Missouri river. This comprises the following lines: The main line from Plattsburgh and Omaha to Denver, the Nebraska line from Nebraska City to Calvert, Atchison & Nebraska Railroad from Atchison to Lincoln and Columbus, the Republican Valley Railroad and its branches. These lines comprise 1,250 miles of railroad, and are now occupied by the American Express and United States Express, who will vacate in favor of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express. An office will be opened in Denver by Wells, Fargo & Co., and they will run passengers through to that point from Kansas City, making a short and quick means of express communication between these two cities, while this route from Chicago to Denver will be forty-two miles shorter than via the Union Pacific Railroad and Julesburg.

Overland Bound West.

The following passengers passed Omaha on Wednesday to arrive in Reno to-night: Robert L. Behr, Mrs. S. M. Miller and daughter, G. W. Burns and wife, W. F. Wheeler and family, A. B. Bloch and wife, Miss Albertine Bloch, Mrs. J. G. Fair, Tessie Fair, Birdie Fair, Charlie Fair, Miss Emma Byer, San Francisco; Mrs. W. L. King, St. Louis; W. H. Forrest, Chicago; R. C. Roberts, Racine, Wis.; P. Savage, Brooklyn; T. J. Robinson, Rock Island, Ill.; H. H. McClellan, Placerville; F. McLaughlin, Oroville; Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo; C. H. Meyer, New York.

Road Projected.

The Greenville Bulletin says a new road is projected from Honey Lake Valley to Indian Valley, starting at Janesville and crossing the summit into Tamarrack, thence by way of Last Chance and Lone Rock into North Arm. This road would facilitate the shipment of flour from the new mill at Janesville, and would also be a great convenience for bringing over beef cattle and other produce to this market. It is said that Mr. Meyert will help liberally towards building the road.

Programme.

Following is the Reform Club programme for this evening:

Song No. 70 Club Reading Mrs. Orville Sessions Song Misses Finlayson Reading Mrs. E. Leonard Song No. 14 Club Solo Miss Effie Loomis Recitation Fred Gould Song Mrs. J. M. Wobkin Song No. 34 Club

A liberal patronage is earnestly solicited as funds are greatly needed at this time.

Sierra Valley Hoppers.

Near Beckworth the young grasshoppers have hatched out and are very thick; the people are much discouraged, and fear that this year's crop will be ruined. This is the sixth successive year that the pests have devastated this unfortunate valley, yet no help has ever been asked for by the sufferers.

Postoffice Work.

On Thursday Postmaster Jamison assented 2,100 letters, 153 registered packages and six sacks of paper mail. This gives an idea of the Reno office, although the matter was lighter than usual that day. There are also from twenty to twenty-five money orders issued daily.

Weather at the Lake.

Parties coming from Lake Tahoe

Thursday, stated that the weather there is perfectly charming, not too warm, but just right. The landlords expect their houses to be filled with guests before the middle of the month.

Grading.

Grading for the extension of the C. and G. Railroad from Belleville to Benton is now completed eighteen miles from the former town. At this point some heavy cutting has to be done.

Half Rates.

Governor Knobell has received a letter from the Central Pacific Railroad Company advising him that they would transport our insane from Stockton to Reno at half rates.

LETTER FROM EUREKA.

Something Mineralogically and Politically.

EUREKA, May 31st, 1882.

Editor JOURNAL.—Having taken a liking for Reno and some of its citizens, I thought I would favor the JOURNAL with a short letter, so as, if possible, to keep up and encourage a friendly feeling between Eureka, the main town of the eastern portion of the State, and Reno, the most favorably located town in the western portion. In saying this we would not entertain any other than pleasant feelings with the other western towns, but it is only just to say that the people of Storey, especially Virginia City in her most palmy days, have acted to the eastern section as though any fair courtesy was like saying "by our permission," or that "Virginia permits this to the east." Carson and Virginia makes a general fight against Reno. Things are so changed now that Eureka and Reno, working in unison, can do nearly anything needful politically. Eureka

AT THIS TIME

Looks, and no doubt is, about as dull as it has been for a long time, but there is hardly any good reason for such business depression. The mines seem to develop better and better daily. The leading mines, Eureka, Con. and Richmond, are doing as well as ever, and yielding much bullion daily. The Albion, if not hampered by litigation, should be working at least hundred men. The Dunderberg, Gray Eagle, and perhaps a hundred other mines, are doing well and looking well, which, with the Eureka, Prospect Mountain and other tunnels that are penetrating the great mineral mountain (known as Prospect Mountain), together with Secret Canyon mines, where the rich mine known as the Geddes & Bertrand is situated, and upon which is being erected very extensive and fine works, under the direction of Charley Strong, of Gold & Curry notoriety. Thus it will be seen that we over here are hopeful, and we are equally anxious for mines in the west to come to the front as of yore.

POLITICALLY

There is but little doing or said publicly, and yet we can see some signs of anxiety with a few of the played-out local fry, who are great men in their own estimation, and have high aspirations on the Democratic side. The most conspicuous being Lord Campbell, who struts the streets twirling his cane, with a pencil poised behind his ear (a la old-style Clerk), who thinks of descending to accept the office of State Auditor. Next is Duke Ryland, who would like to be County Treasurer again under the large salary law. Speaking of salary, he always manages to get his fins into everything. The next is Earl Turner—don't know what he wants, but it is plain to all others that there is nothing that he can get. We are sorry for the Earl. He is perfectly awe-struck because the people cannot appreciate his greatness. Now it is something to have the daily presence of strangers, some with plenty of money, looking modest and making little display, others making much display as capitalists, who turn out to be experts; but it is not spoken of lightly when there are three noble, titled, live Lords, Dukes and Earls—enough to make Eureka famous. Should Eureka be favored with others of like distinction, with noble autocrats, we may make a note of it for your use.
